THE GAZETTE'S COOK BOOK

By Jane Winter Lighter

SWEETS OF FRUITS AND NUTS.

Home-made sweets especially fruit and nut preparations, are always popular and furnish a generous reward for the trouble in preparing them Though new ideas are always coming to the front, fruit and nut confections will always hold their own

FRUIT DULCE—Combine one cup of figs three-fourths cup of nut meats, one-third cup of crystallized ginger and put through a chopper Stir in two tablespoons of lemon juice Then knead into a paste on a board dredged with powdered sugar Roll thin and cut into inch squares Put together in layers of three sprinkling shredded coconut between the layers Put in a cool place until firm

FIG FAVORITES—Boil one cup of sugar and one fourth cup of water together without stirring until it is light brown in color Then stir in one fourth teaspoon of cream of tartar just before removing from the fire Have the figs washed and cut in pieces Lay them on a buttered pan and pour candy over them. Cut in squares

PEANUT PASTE—Chop two cups of Sultana raisins fine, or put through a food grinder Mix one cup of peanut butter and one-half cup of powdered sugar together Then stir in the raisins and one half teaspoon of vanilla Make into balls the size of a walnut and roll in granulated sugar

CREAMED CHERRIES AND NUTS Add one tablespoon of water and one teaspoon of vanilla to the unbeaten white of one egg Work one and three-fourth cups of powdered sugar into the above mixture gradually until it is a stiff paste Have one cup of nut meats chopped fine and one cup of cherries cut into small pieces Stir these into the fruit mixture Knead and roll out to about one fourth inch in thickness and cut into bars This cream may be used as a filling for dates, also

NUT SQUARES—Soak two tablespoons of gelatin in one-fourth cup of cold water Chop one half cup of nut meats fine or put them through a food chopper Add two tablespoons of lemon juice and four tablespoons of orange juice and the grated rind of one orange Make a syrup of one cup of sugar and three fourths cup of hot water and cook until it threads Remove from the fire and add the gelatin and nut mixture Return to the fire and boil for about [illegible] minutes stirring constantly over a moderate heat Then remove from the fire and add four tablespoon of fruits chopped nut meats and the grated rind of one orange.

CARS PROVIDED TO DISTRIBUTE BASKETS

True to the tradition that has won them their name the Good Fellows of Cedar Rapids are on the job

In response to appeals made through The Evening Gazette enough automobile owners have volunteered their services for Wednesday afternoon to deliver every one of the Christmas baskets to be filled by the Social Welfare league.

The list includes between twenty five and thirty names In addition to members of the Rotary club who promised to deliver baskets at their noonday meeting Monday

As no personal notification will be given the Good Fellows, they are asked to be at the storeroom 209 Third avenue west where the baskets will be waiting at 2 p m or shortly thereafter Wednesday There they will receive the baskets which will be tagged with the name and address of the recipient All baskets will need to be at their destinations by dark as many of the addresses to be in side streets and sections of the city difficult to find

A committee of women headed by Mrs John B Terry will spend the morning filling the baskets which will be of the bushel variety and will be decorated with white tissue paper and red ribbons They will contain in addition to the food stuffs toys from the Toy hospital and Central fire station

DELIGHTFUL BOOKS FOR LITTLE FOLK

If Boys and Girls are to know the heroes of the past and present, the wonders of fairy land and the lure of strange and beautiful lands they must read And, too, they must have books for their very own Here are suggestions full of delight for child's Christmas Books.

ROBINSON CRUSOE
Daniel Defoe
Beloved by prince and pauper, wise man, worker and idler, this story of a man marooned on an island in the South Seas is one that will live as long as men love the sea and life with primeval nature. This edition is illustrated with many full-page pictures in colors by Milo Winter. $1.25.

JACK JINGLING IN JUNGLE LAND
E. Hugh Sherwood
Think of a little boy capturing a whole circus all by himself, and in the midst of a jungle. This is what Jack did just after he had missed the circus at home which he had worked three weeks to see. Illustrated by the author with eight full-page and many text pictures in colors A book that opens wide across the lap. Oblong, 75c.

THE MERRYMAKERS
Louise Ayres Garnett
Gay adventures of Mother Goose characters in rollicking verse From the cat and the fiddle to the king and the queen, they all go forth to a glorious day's outing in the country Pictures in colors by James McCracken Square, large size, $1.25.

THE MUFFIN SHOP
Louise Ayres Garnett
A rime book that tells about the Muffin Man, his toothsome wares, and his popular shop in Pudding Lane The verses as well as many full-page pictures in colors by Hope Dunlap will make the children hungry Square, of large size, $1.25.

BEAR STORIES
For Children 8 to 12
Frances Margaret Fox
Miss Fox is one of those lucky peopel who know the forest animals and all about their homes and haunts and habits. Of them all, though, she prefers 'Little Bear" and the "Bear Family" Bears are wonderfully like people — easy going sometimes grumpy — but otherwise full of fun and standing well with forest circles.
There are six of these delightful books about the various adventures of Little Bear Illustrated in colors and black and white. Each 75c.

LORAINE AND THE FAIRY PEOPLE
Elizabeth Gordon
For Little Folk from 6 to 10
Loraine was one of those happy children who learned to know the Fairies of the waves raindrops, sleep, dreams and frost. In these fascinating tales Elizabeth Gordon tells of the busy life of Mother Nature and how Loraine learned the secrets of her wonderful work.
There are six of these wonder stories, illustrated, bound in boards with Bright Wrappers, each 75c.

HAPPY HEART STORIES
For Children 4 to 8
These are bright little stories—full of cheer and fun—Just the daily experiences and happy adventures of little folk — good and naughty—touched with the freshness of the child's own outlook. Among the 17 titles are "A MERRY SCOUT", "BILLIE ROBIN", "BOBBY BUBBLES", "CIRCUS DAY", "THE SUNNY SULKY BOOK" and a lot of others just as good, each 75c.

LITTLE ADVENTURE STORIES
The Greenwood Series for Boys and Girls 6 to 10
Stories all about out door and under water life. They breathe the freshness of wood and stream, and open a fascinating world to little folk. Illustrations are by Milo Winter and Frances Beem.
Here are some of the titles "DOCTOR RABBIT AND BUSHTAIL FOX", "DR. RABBIT AND GRUMPY BEAR," "JOLLY WHITE TAIL," "WADDY RABBIT, each 50c.

ANIMAL STORIES FOR LITTLE FOLKS
Children 6 to 10
The True to Nature Series These stories tell about the little swimming things — Tommy Tad and Polly Wog and Shell Back, a most fetching little turtle—as well as other water creatures. No child should miss their spicy adventures, pictured as they are right through the water, nor fail to know their life as seen along the bank of stream and sedgy pools. There are five titles including "Bully Bullfrog," and "Bully Bull Frog and His Queer Relations." Each, 50c.
