Wheat Prices Go Higher

SELLING TRADITION FAILS TO HOLD TRUE

CHICAGO, Jan 10—(By Associated Press)—Notwithstanding that this was a calendar date on which tradition favored the selling side of the wheat market wheat prices today moved up briskly during the early dealings Purchasing was most conspicuous on the part of a house which recently was a large seller One of the incentives to buy was announcement that No 2 red wheat the ordinary contract grade here had reached $2 02½ a bushel at St. Louis the highest price there yet this season Estimates were also current that the European bread grain crop is 8 000 000 to 9 000 000 tons less than the total a year ago Opening prices which varied from unchanged figures to ½c off May $1 78⅞@1 79½ and July $1 52½ were followed by an upturn which carried May to $1 80⅞

Subsequently May touched $1 81, but toward the last the market was easier as a result of profit taking sales and week-end adjustment of accounts. The close was unsettled ranging from ⅛c net decline to ⅛c advance. May $1 80¾ to $1 80⅞ and July $1 54⅛ to $1 54¼

Corn and oats averaged a little higher sympathizing with wheat After opening unchanged to ½c down, May $1 29⅛@1 29¼ the corn market scored moderate gains

Later, prices reacted owing to wide accounts for cash corn in the sample market Corn closed easy, at ⅛c net lower to ¼c gain May $1 28¾

Oats started unchanged to ¼c lower, May 61¾@61⅞c but soon advanced

The close was steady at the same as yesterday's finish to ⅜c higher, May 62@62½c

In line with hogs the provision market held about steady

STOCK MARKET ENDS WEEK STILL BOOMING

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—(By Associated Press.)—Bullish demonstrations in the stock market were resumed at today's opening, initial gains of 1 to 2½ points being recorded by Allied Chemical, American Brake Shoe, Dupont, Reading and Denver and Rio Grande Western preferred, the last name touching a record high at 58, making its gain for the week about 14 points. There was a good demand for the western rails

Buying orders, which poured into the market from all sections of the country were spread over a broad list Century Ribbon moved up 3¼ points, Dupont extended its early gain to 2¾, Gulf Mobile and Northern preferred advanced 2½ and Missouri Pacific 2, while Delaware and Hudson, Le High Valley, General Motors, International Paper, Worthington Pump and Sears-Roebuck were among the issues to climb 1 to 1½ points. More than a dozen issues sold at their highest prices in over a year, the list including Famous Players, Certainteed Products, Standard Gas and Electric, Western Pacific, Montgomery Ward and Brown Shoe. American Can broke 3 points but soon recovered half its loss and Radio Corporation sagged one Foreign exchange opened irregular demand sterling just under $4.79 and Dutch Guilders breaking 15 points to 40 43 cents.

Speculation for the rise was conducted at a furious pace with buying of many classes of stocks being stimulated by reports of expanding business activities.

Mail order and merchandising issues were buoyant in reflection of the prosperity that has come to the agricultural regions Dupont and General Motors were in brisk demand, eclipsing their highest prices in more than a year by touching $1.42⅛ up 3¼, and 68½ up 2⅝ respectively

The closing was firm Total sales approximately one million shares.
