

HARRY EMERSON FOSDICK

"What Christian Liberals are Driving At"

Once heretics were burned at the stake, but today measured thought strives to replace savage intolerance. Denied a regular pulpit in the Presbyterian Church by the fundamentalists, Harry Emerson Fosdick has won foremost recognition as a Christian thinker and liberal. Read this remarkable article in the January Ladies' Home Journal and you will know at least why churches are packed when Dr. Fosdick speaks.

W

oven through a story of great adventure — of Eighteenth Century piracy, slave-trade and high society — is the life of a most fascinating naval deserter. The grim civilization, raw and rough, sets off vividly the advance made in a century and a half. "High Noon" by Crosbie Garstin begins in the January Ladies' Home Journal.

These and 38 other features—novels, stories and articles—make this issue full of interest. M. R. Werner's enlivening story of Brigham Young continues. Also features by such well-known writers as George Weston, Clarence Budington Kelland, Eleanor Hallowell Abbott, Margaretta Tuttle, Albert Payson Terhune, Alice Ames Winter, and many others.

THE CURTIS PUBLISHING COMPANY

384 Independence Square, Philadelphia, Pa.

I enclose one dollar Please send The Ladies' Home Journal for one year beginning with January.

Name _____

Street Address _____

Town _____ State _____

$1. the Year

Send Your Dollar with the Coupon TODAY

If your yearly subscription—only $1.00—reaches us by January 15th, you will receive not only the complete novel "High Noon", Zane Grey's "The Bee Hunter" and novels by Joseph C. Lincoln, Albert Payson Terhune, Corra Harris and several others, but also 70 short stories of unusual merit and a host of Blog-raphies of timely and absorbing interest.

In addition—those helpful, up-to-date departments, Fashion, House-keeping, Needlework, Interior Decorating, Art, and all the other features which make the Journal welcomed each month by millions of American women.

January Issue
NOW ON SALE

10¢

THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL

You can subscribe through any newdealer or authorized boy agents or send your order direct to THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL, Philadelphia, Pa.