On Sept. 29, 1922

Denecke's Bargain Basement was opened with the avowed purpose of UNDERSELLING!

That was two and one-half years ago.

That policy is still in effect

That policy has not been changed!

At the time the Bargain Basement was opened, we solicited

the Services of the More Than 50,000 People In This Community

to help us keep our prices lowest! To make this policy effective and FRUITFUL TO OUR CUSTOMERS, both in practice and in deed, we offered to any person giving us truthful information where equal quality was being sold for less than our Bargain Basement prices. No purchase necessary to get this $1 in cash!

Of course, through some oversight or error, or by reason of someone else repricing their goods for a special sale, we may until the information reaches us be a little higher on that one item — if so, THEN THE ARTICLE IS IMMEDIATELY MARKED DOWN!—You receive the benefit of the lowest price.

In the two and one-half years, we have only given out 58 dollars—that is a very commendable record for our UNDER-selling policy — especially since no customer is disputed.
