JENKINS' MEN SET FOR LAST 2 GAMES

Captain Stuelke And Mates Should Be In Trim After Long Rest; Cornell In Tilt Here Thursday.

Having rested on their oars last enemy territory, Coe's basketmen will play the season's semi-final tonight when they engage the the ment at the Congress hotel here.

Coach Jenkins gave his men s needed rest of several days last week Buckeyes Play Wisconsin And and they should be in fine fettle for The game will have no direct bearing on the Mid-west championship as Lawrence has the gonfalon tightly sewed up, but the Kohawks are anxious to wind up the season with a pair of triumphs which will give them thirteen victories against three defeats for the season's endeavors.

The game will have no direct bearing that, as far as "Young" Jake's play victory for Hoppe gives him one chance to stay in the running. All be will have to do then is the "Young" Jake when they meet Tuesday night, assuming that Schaefer does what everyone clso has done, and takes a fall out of them thirteen victories against three defeats for the season's endeavors.

The campaign will come to an ofthe Gopher dribblers this evening. The campaign will come to an of-ificial close Thursday when the Kobattle Cornell on the local Although beaten at Cornell by a three-point margin Saturday, Carleton has a squad of sharp shooters that can not be taken lightly. The northerners defeated Cornell on the Northfield floor early last week and should give the Kohawks a red hot argument tonight.

Jenkins probably will use the same
