

QUIZ GREECE ON TREATMENT OF ITS MINORITIES

League of Nations To Send Questionnaire To Government On Bulgars.

GENEVA, March 14.—(By International News.)—After a long speech by former Premier Venizelos this morning, the league of nations council decided to send a new questionnaire to the Greek government on the treatment of Greek and Bulgarian minorities.

Greek representatives signed an agreement on this subject at the last council meeting which, the league council rejected, re-opening the subject.

Delegates of Japan, reported on the expulsion of the Greek ecclesiastical patriarch from Constantinople, declaring that Turkey refused the council's jurisdiction, asserting it was an internal question.

Venizelos argued for the council's competency to rule in the difference, which nearly precipitated serious trouble between Greece and Turkey a month ago.

The council plans to conclude, present business and adjourn tonight. Otherwise a Sunday meeting will be necessary.

Dog Attacks Child.

Another case of a child being attacked and badly frightened by a dog was reported yesterday by Mrs.

Guy C. Rich, 1934 Washington avenue. An airedale dog owned by one of the neighbors has been annoying and frightening her 3-year-old son, Guy, as he went to and from the Johnson school, and on Thursday it jumped at him and tore his coat sleeve. She declared her son and other small children in the neighborhood have been so badly scared by the dog that they are afraid to go to school alone. She said she telephoned to the police and asked them to act.

FIREMEN'S BAND TO GIVE CONCERT SOON

All the noise emanating from the central fire station these days is not exhaust of the high-powered motors of the fire trucks. It's the toot of the saxophones and the boom of the big drum as the firemen practice for the approaching concert.

Between alarms the members of the newly organized firemen's band test their lungs on the syncopating saxophones and Andy Coleman says there is a marked improvement in the harmony.

"We'll be ready to demonstrate shortly that the members of the firemen's band can play a stream of water on a fire," Andy explained.

The first public appearance of the band will be at Dreamland Ball room April 15, and the firemen plan to have the tickets ready for distribution next week.

Only firemen in uniform will be permitted to sell the tickets. The money raised by this entertainment will be used to pay for the band instruments.

One purpose of organizing the band was to advertise Cedar Rapids at the firemen's conventions, where it will play. It also expects to take part in local parades and other events where band music is required.

One Less Bubbling Still Here Today, One More Prisoner

The prohibition squad landed another still last night, the fourth this week, when Federal Agent R. R. Slade, Deputy Sheriff Barber, Radebaugh and Max Avery descended on the home of Karl Kaminsky, a car repairer living at 1417 North Third street west.

Besides the still, three gallons of alcohol were found. The assistance of a police car was called for in hauling the loot to the station from where it was transferred to the sheriff's office in Marion.

Kaminsky was arrested on a charge of maintaining a liquor nuisance and also for violation of the federal prohibition act.

He waived to the grand jury when arraigned before Justice G. S. Lightner. Bond of $500 was not furnished.

La Porte City Lad With Crushed Skull Amazes Physicians

VINTON, March 14.—(By International News.)—Despite the fact that his skull was fractured, Clifford Williams, 17-year-old La Porte City high school student and basketball player today continued to amaze physicians and nurses by apparently making steady progress toward recovery. The boy's skull was crushed from his left eye to the base of the head when he jumped from a freight train here after he had discovered he had boarded the wrong train.

ATTRACTIVE FIREPLACE IS SIMPLE OLD STYLE

By MARIAN MOORE.

Some people who are building or remodeling their homes are afraid that a fireplace constructed of good old common brick is not sufficiently "fifty" to give the tone and elegance to the living room that they want to inject there. They want something startlingly new and different, all the while forgetting that the purpose of the fireplace is just the same now as it was years ago before steam heat came into being, that a fireplace is still supposed to give out heat and good cheer, and that it is not merely a decorated wall space of the living room which could just as well be given over to some needed piece of furniture. Of course standards of interior decoration have completely changed since the old days, but the rule that our forefathers went by of having their fireplaces constructed of plain brick or the tile with an overmantel of simple design holds perfectly good today because there is beauty and fine taste in that simplicity, and because no mantels and fireplaces of "flossier" construction could possibly be in better taste for the unostentatious homes that most of us have.

There is no doubt that this fireplace was built for real use and gets it. The brass andirons hold big logs all ready for lighting and beside the fireplace is kept the set of brass utensils which are always needed for a successful fire of an evening's duration, with the result that old-fashioned hospitality with the aid of the brick fireplace is never lacking.

Fire Truck Sinks In Gumbo On West Side; Fast 2 Hours

While speeding to a fire at 326 Twenty-third avenue west at 7 a. m. today, the fire truck from station No. 5 sank in the mud street and it took all the firemen from station five and a crew from central station two hours to get the truck on solid ground again.

The alarm was for only a chimney fire. After the truck sank down to the hubs, the firemen ran the remaining distance and put out the fire.

Two other chimney fires occurred last night at the homes of W. J. Hurd, 1549 Fifth avenue, and C. A. Hollenbeck, 718 North Eighth street west.

An oil burner overflowed at the home of A. B. Clark, 1300 D avenue at 7:30 a. m. today necessitating the attention of the firemen, but no damage resulted.

Marion Woman Is Hurt Here By Car

Mrs. J. J. Cahill of Marion, suffered a rash on her head and several bruises at 6:30 p. m. yesterday in an accident in First avenue and Eighth street. K. B. Caesar of Marshalltown was driving in the avenue and Mrs. Cahill was walking north across the avenue. According to his report to the police, she walked into the path of his car and was knocked down. He took her to St. Luke's hospital where her injuries were given attention.

What Will Your House be Worth in Ten Years?

When you consider the amount expended over a period of ten years for painting, repairs and depreciation on a frame house in comparison with the amount expended on a brick house of similar size, you will see that you have more than paid for a brick house and still do not have one.
