

And after all —
"There's No Place Like Home"

Your dreams of a home of your own may center around a cozy little bungalow---perhaps at the edge of the city where you may have plenty of open ground---with trees, shrubbery and a garden plot.

Or, you may favor a more pretentious dwelling nearer the center of your home town---a larger home to which your neighbors may point with pride and respect.

But no matter what the size or location---no matter whether the cost is $2,000 or $10,000---the Home Owner is a respected member of any community, enjoying his rightful place among his fellow men.

Home Ownership and Independence are two words that are linked inseparably with the Pursuit of Happiness.

For to the man whose roof is his own belongs the right to order his personal and family life as he will.

NOW!

Just turn the pages of this newspaper to the Want Ad section and select the home that your family wants and SHOULD HAVE from the bargains offered there in every locality.

No large outlay of cash is necessary---there are payments to fit every income.

Delay only means that someone else will select the home that you would have chosen---read the Real Estate for Sale Ads---in the Want Ad columns of this newspaper---Now.

It is not necessary that you buy an elaborate home as a start. Others have found it much more practical to buy a cheaper home---meet the payments regularly---and later turn it on the purchase of a larger and more expensive one. The Want Ads of this paper offer homes that you can well afford---with small cash payments and easy monthly payments thereafter.
