RECEPTION, BANQUET FOR SENIORS AT SHELLSBURG

Special to The Gazette.
SHELLSBURG, May 25.—A reception was held in the high school Friday evening in honor of the 1925 graduating class. The program was a vocal duet by Dorothy Schmidt and Lois Waddell, a reading by Mildred McClintock, and a tableau staged by the Junior girls with Everett Beatty as soloist. At the business session, Glenn McClintock was elected president, Lynn Dickinson, vice-president and Mrs. Clifford Spurgeon, secretary and treasurer. The executive committee will be Ray Daniels, Jay Perry and Mrs. Homer Sheeley.

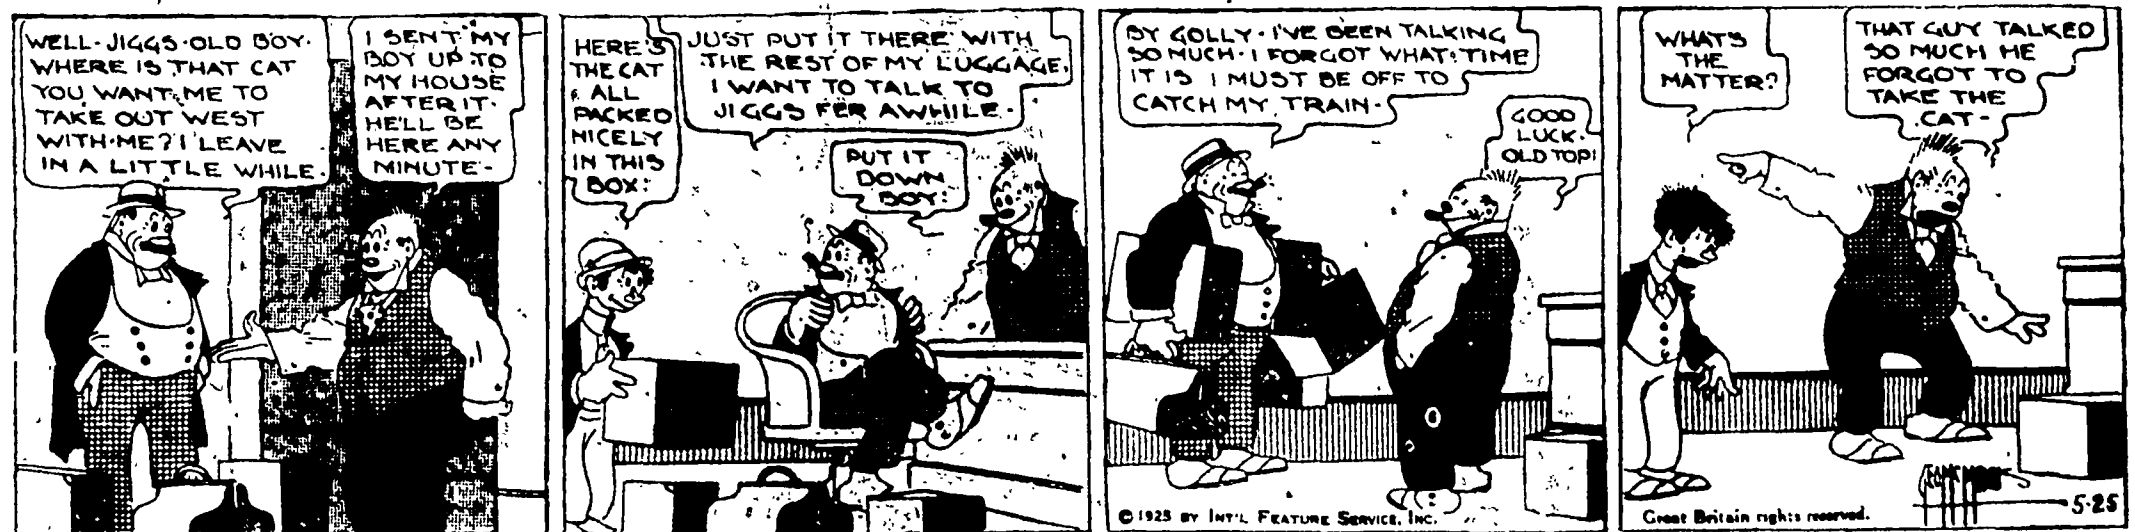

The group then marched to the Odd Fellow hall where the alumni banquet was given with 175 present. There was a fine program of songs and songs with Warren Farnburn officiating as toastmaster. Among the out-of-town members attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Melville Speck, Toledo, Mrs. Carl Winsor, Chicago; Mrs. Carl McCullough, Albion; Elwin O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Graham, Iowa City; Mr. and Mrs. John Shonler, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Bent, Braden, Sherman; Mrs. Mattie Heath, East Heath; Maude Krebs and Jessie Miller all of Cedar Rapids; Marie Mowbray of Brandon, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hayes of Palo.

MARENGO STUDENTS IN NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY
 Special to The Gazette.
MARENGO, May 25.—Irene Brown, Kathryn Griffin, Dorris Henderson, Ruth Langen, Fern McGovern, and Wilma Owen, members of the 1925 graduating class of Marengo high school were admitted to membership in the National Honor Society at the class day exercises here. They were chosen by the faculty. The National Honor Society is a national high school organization that corresponds to Phi Beta Kappa in college circles, except that, in addition to scholarships, the members are elected on the basis of character, leadership and service, and that is what it is proposed to do.
