

NEW PROVINCE JOINS CHINESE REVOLT STRIKE

Attempt Is Made To Blow Up Home Of Chamber Of Commerce Chief.

SHANGHAI, June 8.—(INS)—Students at Kiang, capital of the Honan province, have declared a sympathetic strike to aid Chinese general strike here against foreigners and the anti-foreign movement in Honan is growing in intensity with a serious situation impending, according to information reaching Shanghai today.

An unsuccessful attempt was made today in Shanghai to bomb the home of Yuxi Ching, chairman of the Chinese chamber of commerce. The incident followed the receipt by Yuxi Ching of a threatening letter in which he was accused of not fully supporting the students in their strike.

Overt acts by the strikers are being confined to stoning street cars and rickshaws.

Agitators are attempting to call out Chinese nurses and attendants at the foreign hospitals.

The food controller has announced an embargo on the shipment of any food from the foreign settlement and has established food depots.

Peace negotiations await the arrival of the diplomatic delegation, members being enroute from other cities.

PEKIN MORE QUIET.

PEKIN, June 8.—(AP)—The delegation appointed by the foreign legations to investigate the rioting growing out of the strike in the Japanese-owned cotton mills at Shanghai, left for that city today and should arrive in from forty-eight to sixty hours.

Appointment of the delegation, which consists of the secretaries of the various legations, has created a good impression among the Chinese and giving the authorities and the conservative unofficial element a basis on which to appeal for moderation in the attitude of the natives toward the foreigner.

The only evidence of activity by the agitating students yesterday was the distribution of hand bills purporting to be the collective demands of thirty schools.

These documents, more or less hysterical phrases demanded redress and remedy for the conditions contributing to the Shanghai situation.

The newspaper comment has been unusually calm and analytical, but its keynote is that the time has arrived when China must have her political rights restored.

STRIKE CONTINUES.

SHANGHAI, June 8.—(AP)—There have been no further disturbances here following the recent rioting but the strike situation in protest against the activities of the foreign powers is continuing.

The defense measures of the foreign colonies are continuing but the arrival of further naval contingents has enabled the authorities to lighten the duties of the volunteers.

Kansas Negro Is Taken Back There By Ottawa Sheriff

Sheriff C. E. Wright of Ottawa, Kan., yesterday took back to his home a Negro convict, who escaped from the jail at Ottawa after attacking the sheriff Thompson when he given no leeway on the trip back or when he was there.

The sheriff told of the Negro's escape. It was on the night of May 27 and the sheriff went to the jail to lock the prisoners into their cells for the night, they having had the freedom of the corridor during the day.

Sheriff Wright said he called to them and asked if all were in their cells. They responded to the roll and he was just about to swing the doors shut when he saw Thompson standing in the semi-darkness, his hat and coat on.

The sheriff reached for him, but Thompson swung on Wright with a blow which he had held behind him. The blow was intended for Sheriff Wright's head, but he ducked and it struck him on the left wrist. It was sufficient for the Negro's purposes, however, and he made his escape through the residence quarters of the sheriff.

Great Song Bird To Sing At Reunion Of Disabled Veterans At Omaha

ERNESTINE SCHUMANN-HEINK.

MADAME ERNESTINE SCHUMANN-HEINK, famous singer and beloved "Gold Star Mother," who is to celebrate her golden jubilee as a prima donna by reentering Grand Opera this coming fall, has cancelled European and American concert engagements, in order to maintain her annual custom and sing for the wounded and disabled veterans, at the fifth annual national convention of the Disabled American Veterans of the World war, to be held in Omaha, June 22 to 27 inclusive.

The impressive initial public session, Monday, June 22, in Omaha's municipal auditorium, "Mother" Schumann-Heink will sing "Taps" and "The Star Spangled Banner." She will also give a song recital especially for the disabled veterans, Tuesday night, June 23, in Omaha.

Eight thousand to 10,000 wounded and disabled veterans are expected in Omaha for the Disabled American Veterans' national convention. National Commander Frank J. Irwin, D. S. C., of New York City, will preside.

NEVER USE VALANCES WITHOUT SIDE DRAPE

BY MARIAN MOORE.

Although this living room has some of the appearance of a room that has really been lived in, you'll probably be surprised when you learn that it belongs to a so-called "model" home, but in many others it is not. I've yet to see a model home in any town or city that really does have a room like this. Even though the spirit in which it was erected by a most worthy civic organization was full of public pride, most of the model homes I have viewed seemed like clean and neat little dollhouses, but were totally lacking in charm because of the poor selection of the furnishings in them and the manner in which the backgrounds were handled.

In this living room there are several other windows in addition to those shown here, giving entrance to lots of sunlight and air during the summer time. This idea is fine, but the curtaining of the windows is all amiss, for the filmy white curtains are really too flimsy to be tied back in folds of the necessary richness, and the effect gained by having merely the valances with no side draperies is a most unfinished one.

The design of the Windsor rocker is very poor because it embodies too many ornamental ideas for one simple chair, whereas a Windsor design should be of unobtrusive simplicity.

Suggests Naming Big Church After John D.'s Oil Co.

NEW YORK, June 8.—(AP)—"Socony Church" is the suggestion of the Rev. Dr. John Roach Straton for the name of the new skyscraper edifice of which the Rev. Dr. Emerson Fosdick is to be pastor. Dr. Straton, fundamentalist and pastor of Calvary Baptist church, in his sermon yesterday, poked fun at the plans of the Park Avenue Baptist church, which is attended by the Rockefeller family and has called Dr. Fosdick, modernist and former Presbyterian preacher.

Dr. Straton suggested that three generations of Rockefeller might label the new church with an enormous "socony" electric sign. "Socony" is the trade mark of the Standard Oil company of New York.

Newspaper accounts of Dr. Fosdick's first sermon a week ago in the present Park avenue church also inspired Dr. Straton to satire. John D. Rockefeller, his son, John D. Jr., and the latter's son attended the service and shook hands with members of the congregation. The elder Rockefeller gave dinner to seven children and one dime fell on the floor. Said Dr. Straton:

"A picture skillfully painted of the three Rockefellers standing in a row, taking the channel and at the base of the pulpit, the shining Standard Oil dime rolling on the carpet and the lucky youngster making his wild dive for it between the legs of the Standard Oil magnate ought to be historically preserved and the building for it would be directly above the altar."

DR. GAGE DELIVERS SERMON TO SENIORS

Gives Main Requirements For "The Builders"; Regrets Part Of Church Argument With Science; Program Today.

Presentation of the senior class plays this afternoon at 2:30, an organ recital by Prof. Marshall Bidwell at 5 p. m. and the President's reception at Voorhees quadrangle were the main events of the commencement program at Coe college today.

The great temples of Christian democracy must be built by the graduates of today, President H. M. Gage told the seniors in his baccalaureate address Sunday morning. He spoke on "The Builders."

"In the past it was a problem to get good kings, now with a great Christian democracy inculcating a spirit of independence, the problem is to get good people," he said.

The builder must have three characteristics, he said. First, he must be constructive; second, his mind and methods must be scientific, and third, he must be democratic.

Touched on Evolution.

He touched on the church's attitude toward science, telling the graduates there are some parts of the church record in this regard that are regretful.

Competitive denominationalism was scored by the president. "It is as antiquated as grandmother's spinning wheel," he said.

Following his address he spoke briefly to the members of the senior class assembled in cap and gown in the front of the chapel.

Three one-act plays were presented this afternoon by members of the graduating class.

The casts were as follows: "Tradition" by George Middleton, Walter Soli, Ruth Underhill and Bernadine Wingert; "Sham" by Frank Tompkins; Ralph Lacey, Lillian Klesau, Harold Sebern, Robert Monteth.

"Spreading the News" by Luel, Christie, Homer Akin, Evelyn Caldwell, Bernice Campbell, Charles Whelpley, Leonard Brown, Donald Allen, George Smouse, Reuben Karban, and Harold Allison.

Tomorrow's Program.

Tomorrow will be alumni day with old grads taking charge of most of the commencement exercises. An alumni chapel service will be held at 9:30 a. m. followed by a business meeting of alumni. The semi-annual meeting of the board of trustees also will be held at 10 a. m. The alumni joyride will be held at 10:30 a. m. after which the alumni and seniors will picnic Ellis Park.

The traditional class day exercises will be held at 2:30 p. m. on the steps of Voorhees quadrangle. Orations by members of the graduating class and the passing down of the class honors by the respective class presidents will make up most of the program. The alumni dinner, will be given at 6:45 p. m. at the quadrangle.

At 8:15 there will be a faculty recital. At midnight the senior class will conduct the ivy exercises on the campus.

Electrical Storm Chases Heat Wave Here; Cooler Today

Sweltering humanity breathed a sigh of cool relief last night when a cold electrical storm swept over this community, bringing with it a small amount of rain, and temporarily breaking the heat wave which had seared the country unchecked for almost a week.

The rainfall here was .12 of an inch. No damage was reported in Lincoln county, but farther south and west, near Davenport and Iowa City, the wind caused many tree branches to be blown down and telephone lines put out of commission.

The maximum temperature yesterday was 94. A strong southwest wind lessened the severity of the heat, and toward mid-afternoon the temperature dropped slowly. Following the storm the mercury continued a downward path until this morning it stood at 69, cooler by ten degrees or more than on previous mornings.

ALDEN KIN MEET.

SHELLEBURG, June 8.—Iowa residents who trace their ancestry from John Alden, famous Pilgrim, will hold a reunion in Riverside park at Marshalltown June 20. Mayor John Alden of Shelleburg, members of the Ira Case, Keed Woodson, Henry Alden and Joe Alden families of the vicinity, are expecting to attend.

A booklet was compiled with names of more than ten thousand descendants of John Alden and it is hoped that a reunion has been found in a penitentiary or a poor house. A big reunion is held annually near Philadelphia.

Motorcycle Cop Is Killed When His Tire Explodes

WATERLOO, June 8.—(AP)—Vincent Margretz, 26, motorcycle policeman, is dead here as the result of injuries received Sunday afternoon by being hurled headlong from his machine when the front tire blew out as he was answering a call for a policeman.

He was thrown headlong to the curb, receiving a fractured skull. He died in a local hospital an hour later.

It is believed the accident was caused by expansion of air by the heat.

Margretz was a veteran of the World war, having enlisted in the marines when he was too young for the draft. He was the youngest man in the police department, in years, and service, being appointed motorcycle officer in April.

Scalded Lad Takes French Leave From St. Luke's Hospital

Robert Long, 16, who made his presence known in Cedar Rapids at 2 a. m. Monday when he screamed in protest against a stream of hot water that was scalding him on the tender of a North Western eastbound passenger train, disappeared Saturday night as suddenly as he arrived, though more quietly.

Long was badly scalded and he was taken to St. Luke's hospital where he recuperated. He had been able to be in a wheel chair and to walk about the hospital, but nurses did not think he would attempt to hit the long dusty trail again so soon.

But that is what he did. Supposedly tucked in bed for the night, he arose sometime between 10 and 11 p. m., got his clothes and took French leave from the hospital.

At the time he was taken to the hospital Long said he had no home, but had been bumming from one place to another, coming here from Sioux City, he said, but did not know or would not tell where his parents are now.

Idaho Mine Caves In; Two Men Dead; Two Are Rescued

WALLACE, Idaho, June 8.—The bodies of J. Clements, Butte, Mont., and Raymond Vinson, Garland, Mo., caught in a cave-in on the 1,500 foot level of the Hecla mine yesterday afternoon, had not been recovered early today.

Six men were working on the timbers when the cave-in occurred. Two escaped and two were rescued after suffering minor injuries. The feet of one of the trapped miners can be seen, but rescue crews have been unable to reach the men and have abandoned hope of finding them alive.

Cafe Employee Dies From Hemorrhage

Fred Lucy, 34, employed at the Magnus cafe, died suddenly of pulmonary hemorrhage about 12:30 a. m. today. He was stricken while working in the kitchen, but died in an ambulance as he was being rushed to St. Luke's hospital.

An autopsy performed by Dr. R. A. Vorpahl, coroner, showed the hemorrhage as the cause of death. No inquest will be held.

Lucy had been working at the Magnus for about three weeks. He roomed at 826 South First street west. His mother and a sister live in Warren, Pa., the coroner learned. Lucy was not married.
